VOICE OF THE PRESS.

REV. DR. TALMAGE ON RELIGIOUS NEWSPAPERS.

If They Have the Right Spirit, He Says.

Each One Does More Good Than Fifty Pulpits—Editorial Responsibility.

Copyright 1907, by American Press Association.

Washington, Nov. 28.—In a previous discourse, Dr. Talmage having shown the opportunities of the religious press, in this discourse speaks of the mission of religious newspapers. His text is, "Then I turned and lifted up mine eyes and looked, and behold a flying roll." Jeremiah 1:15.

In a dream the prophet saw something rolled up advancing through the heaven.

It contained a divine message. It moved swiftly, as on wings. It had much to do with the destiny of nations. But if you will look up you will see many flying rolls. They come with great speed. They are the voice of the press.

The flying roll of this century are the newspapers. They carry news from all parts of the world. They are the voice of the press.

There are in the United States about 20,000 newspapers. The religious newspapers are the flying roll of this century.

They carry news from all parts of the world. They are the voice of the press.

The religious mission. Christy commands

all the troops of all denominations of Christians, and they are going to about together in the final victory when the whole world is reformed.

That we are in all our denominations

get this of trying to make other people think as we do all points. The mission, when men get wrong, in their faith, instead of reformatory them by action, we must get the word for the natural roll of years to remove them.

And the truth live on.

We may not agree as to the number of years, but in a last day, the truth, manifested. Do you believe in this? Then we must get the word for the mission, when men get wrong, in their

faith, instead of reformatory them by
